It is a question if any play that has been offered in recent seasons presents as many good points for the pleasure of the theatre-goer as does "The Man on the Box" for it combines comedy, farce, sentiment, emotion and has also a slight touch of high class melodrama, all of which, deftly intermingled by the cunning hand of the dramatist, make up a play of absorbing interest. "The Man on the Box" will be presented here tonight by a strong cast, special scenic settings and a production that is complete to the slightest detail. Seats on sale at Kendrick's.
